Nature Guides are not only qualified guides, but also passionate ambassadors for their region.

On your tour with a Nature Guide, unique experiences are waiting for you:

- Wild nature in the heart of Europe: the southern Baltic Sea region surprises with unexpected wilderness - the Nature Guides will take you there.
- The diverse mixture of culture, people and traditions in the various regions of Germany, Poland and Lithuania.
- A tour with the Nature Guides is full of benefits – for you and the region – as you will directly contribute to a sustainable and regional added value.
